

Graduate School of Economics, Faculty of Economics, Kobe University

神戸大学大学院経済学研究科・経済学部

International Workshop on Climate and Environmental Economics

Date: Monday, September 22, 2025

Venue: Rokkodai 1st Campus, Main Building, Second floor,
Economics, Conference Room 3 (会議室) (#37 on the map below),

<https://www.kobe-u.ac.jp/en/campus-life/maps/rokkodai1/>

Language: English

Co-sponsored by: Rokko Forum / KIMAP Seminar

Session 1

Time	Speaker	Title
10:00-12:20	Larry Karp (University of California, Berkeley)	The gains from international carbon trade and the ranking of suboptimal climate policies
	Rintaro Yamaguchi (National Institute for Environmental Studies)	Comprehensive national accounting for CO2 emissions under the polluter pays principle (with Geir B. Asheim)
	Muthukumara Mani (World Bank)	Reconciling economic success with climate risks: Case of Southeast Asia
12:20-13:30	Lunch

Session 2

13:30-15:00	Kohei Kamaga (Sophia University)	Population ethics with thresholds
	Daiju Narita (The University of Tokyo)	Effects of air pollution on labor supply: Evidence from Japan (with Daichi Yamada)
15:00-15:30	Break

Session 3

15:30-17:00	Shun Chonabayashi (Soka University)	Estimating the impact of droughts and floods on African farmers
	Hiroaki Sakamoto (Kobe University)	Feedback-adjusted carbon prices